

UNCLAIMED CIVIL WAR MEDALS

Doddridge County, West Virginia

In 1866, the state of West Virginia authorized the minting of nearly 27,000 medals to honor its Union Civil War soldiers. Today, over 4,000 medals remain unclaimed.

Below is a list of those Doddridge County Civil War veterans whose medals have not been claimed. Click the hyperlinked names to learn more about each veteran and determine if perhaps you are descended from him in some way, and thus possibly be eligible for his medal. Names that are not hyperlinked are those soldiers for whom we have found little or no family information.

A more informative summary of all Doddridge County veterans with unclaimed Civil War medals, including those not hyperlinked in the list, can also be viewed in the form of an interactive SLIDESHOW

For a brief history of the medals, including a complete list of those still unclaimed and how to apply for your ancestor's medal, visit the Civil War Medals page of the West Virginia State Archives website. <http://www.wvculture.org/history/archives/medals.html>
